

Officers of Native Daughters Of Golden West Are Installed

"Friendship" was the theme chosen by the Tierra del Rey Parlor 300, Hermosa Beach, Native Daughters of the Golden West, for their installation of new officers, Saturday, July 14.

Assuming their new duties of office were Mrs. Benjamin Tyack, president; Mrs. Jack Cornett, past president; Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. William Roaire, and Mrs. William Vasilion, vice presidents; Mrs. P. C. Ulrich, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Giroux, financial secretary; Mrs. Rhomas Rassmusen, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Olson, marshal.

Trustees are Mrs. Wallace McIntosh, Mrs. Clarence Nonemaker, and Mrs. Frances Moore. Mrs. Charles Thiel and Mrs. Dorman Johnson are the sentinels and Mrs. Barbara Harris is organist.

Janine and Carol Duncan, granddaughters of the president, were Bible and flag escorts assisted by Julie Stonier, Cheryl Rozaire and Virginia Wolfram.

Mrs. Ethel M. Darit, deputy grand president and her corps of officers from California Parlor 247 were the installing team. Mrs. Frank Wolfram, charter member and past president of Tierra del Rey, installed the officers.

The marshal for the evening was the newly elected grand marshal of the Native Daughters, Mrs. Eileen Dismuke from Tierra del Ora Parlor, 304, Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Darlene Bush from Placenta Parlor 277, Encino, was introduced as the new Deputy Grand President.

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

JULY 22, 1956

TORRANCE HERALD

Seven

NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF GOLDEN WEST... Tierra del Rey Parlor, Hermosa Beach, installed new officers at a meeting July 14. They are (from left) Mrs. William Vasilion, third vice president; Mrs. Jack Cornett, past president; Mrs. Benjamin Tyack, the new president; Mrs. Don Smith, first vice president, and Mrs. William Roaire, second vice president. Installing officer was Mrs. Frank Wolfram, charter member and past president of Tierra del Rey chapter.

MRS. WILLIAM KERR
... On Wedding Day

MRS. THOMAS RISCHÉ
... Weds Newspaperman

Parties For Bride-elect

Miss Marilyn Schumert, whose wedding to Warren Neubauer will be a beautiful event on Aug. 4 at the First Lutheran Church in Long Beach, was the honoree at a pretty surprise bridal shower July 11. Hostesses at the affair were Misses Sally Neubauer and Mary Jo Hanna.

The Neubauer home at 604 Madrid, setting for the party, was decorated with white wedding bells and green and white streamers. The gift table was laden with beautifully wrapped miscellaneous gifts for the future bride.

Several appropriate games were played followed by the opening of gifts. The hostesses then served refreshments. Attending the party were: Fay Best, Beverly Brimley, Shirley Brown, Lynn Cator, Doreen Friedl, Audrey Killingsworth, Alice Mattern, Judy Moore, Diane Moreno, Rosalie Roberts, Joan Taylor, Annette Traylor, Betty Ward, Donna Wheelchel, Mary Wilson, Charlotte Neubauer, Elizabeth Pi-roth, and Kay Moore.

Miss Schumert was also honored at a personal shower given June 22 by an aunt, Mrs. Rex F. Schumert and attended by a group of relatives.

MICHIGAN TRIP

Mrs. Charleton Mewborn, Sr., has returned from Gross Point, Mich., where she visited with relatives and attended the graduation of a niece.

TEXAS GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jackson and family of Corpus Christi, Tex., visited with Mrs. June Jackson of 2025 W. 162nd St., mother of Mr. Jackson. They were also callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kesson, aunt and uncle of the visitors.

Mary Alice Erwin Recites Vows With Jan D. Romanoff

Miss Mary Alice Erwin was lovely in her wedding gown of white Chantilly lace over white satin as she walked down the aisle of Wayside chapel Saturday morning, July 14, at 8 o'clock to plight her marriage vows with Jan Dave Romanoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Romanoff, 26601 South Western, Lomita.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff S. Erwin, 2378 W. 237th St., was escorted to the altar by her father. Her wedding gown had a lace bodice and a full tulle and lace skirt. The neckline was outlined with tiny seed pearls. Her three-quarter length lace-veiled veil of illusion fell from a pearl crown and the bridal bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

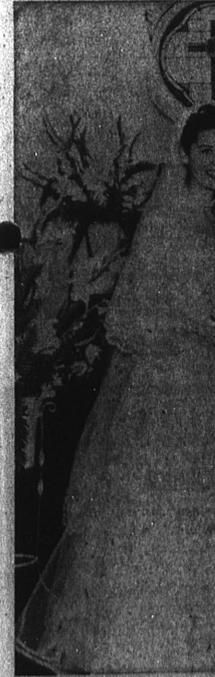

Mrs. Glenda Wholley served as her sister's honor attendant. Her gown was of white net over ice blue taffeta and she carried a shower of pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Fern Barnes in white net over pale green taffeta and Mrs. Juanita Meahan in white net over yellow taffeta. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Dawnita Meahan, niece of the bride, in white net over lavender taffeta, was the flower girl and Jimmy Barnes, a nephew, was the ring bearer.

Joe Hansen served as best man and ushers were Joe Rowell and Dick Horney. The Rev. T. N. Prescott officiated at the marriage ceremony. Mrs. C. Malcom, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Shirley Washburn who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed in the church hall where Sharon Gossett registered the guests. Mrs. Dorothy Learman was in charge of the reception. Serving were Mrs. R. C. Gossett, Mrs. T. N. Sorenson and Mrs. Blanche Schildmeyer.

The couple then left for a honeymoon at Apple Valley Inn. They will be at home at 20537 Cypress Ave., Lomita. The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in June 1956. She is a member of the Lomita Bethel of Job's Daughters.

MRS. J. D. ROMANOFF
... Lovely Bride

DELTA ZETAS TO ATTEND REGENT BREAKFAST JULY 15

Senior Regent Leona Shiffer of the Torrance Chapter Women of the Moose attended the College of Regent breakfast in Los Angeles. She was the guest of Collegians Wilverta Heiman and Wilkins. Mrs. Heiman was chosen chairman of the College of Regents breakfast grounds for the evening.

Farewell Picnic for Carter Family at Local Park Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter and three sons, Ted, 13; Tim, 11, and Tommy, 7, who are moving from Torrance to Phoenix, Ariz., to make their home, were honored at an informal picnic and silver shower by a group of friends in Torrance Park last week.

The Carters have been active in the Carson Street PTA and Mrs. Carter has completed five years on the executive board. She served as president in 1954-55. Last year Mrs. Carter served as chairman of the Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA Community Chest drive. She has worked for five years with the Carson St. Toyloan serving as first Toyarian and then as committee chairman.

Mr. Carter has been active in civic affairs and leaves his post as Cubmaster of Pack 230-C. He has also served as vice president of the Carson Civic Betterment Assn.

Attending the picnic were: Mmes. J. Spence, W. E. Roller, R. McMahan, C. W. Wittenburg, J. Holler, R. Gilmore, J. Luten, L. Lowe, D. Morris, Nola Murchison, L. Rowe, J. Dane and L. J. Atwood. There were also 25 children present.

ILLINOIS GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seeman, 1502 W. 218th St., are entertaining as their houseguest, Mrs. Seeman's sister, Mrs. Ann Conklin of Rockford, Ill. Mrs. Conklin arrived Monday of last week for a three weeks visit here. While here Mrs. Conklin and Mr. and Mrs. Seeman are visiting all the places of interest in the Southland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerr at Home Following Wedding June 27

Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr have established a Torrance residence at 1925 Crenshaw Blvd., following their return from a honeymoon at Detroit Lakes, Minn. The couple were married in a formal ceremony held June 27 in the Jevnaker Lutheran Church in Borup, Minn.

Bride who is the former Marian Dahl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahl of Borup, Minn., and her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kerr of Pittsburgh, Pa.

For her 8 o'clock evening nuptials, the bride was exquisite in a full length gown of white net over taffeta styled with an off the shoulder neckline, cummerbund and a pleated ruffle applied with lace detailing the full skirt. Her finger tip veil was held by a beaded cap and she carried a white Bible topped with a cluster of red roses tied with white satin streamers. She also carried a white handkerchief that was carried by the bridegroom's mother 40 years ago at her wedding.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Archie Lavaas before the altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and daisies.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Evelyn Dahl, in a ballerina length gown of yellow net with matching head band and carrying yellow carnations. Marilyn Short, serving as bridesmaid, wore a similarly styled gown of aqua net with matching head band and bouquet.

The bridegroom chose the bride's brother, Raymond Dahl, to serve as best man and as groomsmen, Kenneth Dahl, another brother. Seating the 120 guests were Glen Espe and Vernon Rage.

A reception followed at the church. The bride cut the first piece of a three tiered, decorated cake which was served by the bride's aunts, Mrs. Omer Espe and Mrs. Henry Holversen. Mrs. John Olson was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Donald Bjorhus, Mrs. Kenneth Dahl and Miss Beverly Stone assisted at the gift table. Mrs. Frank Hardesty and Mrs. John Magnuson poured.

The new Mrs. Kerr was educated in Minnesota and is and her bridegroom attended schools in Pennsylvania and El Camino College. The bride was a teacher last year at the Lutheran School of the Resurrection and her bridegroom is a member of the Torrance Fire

MRS. CLYDE E. LAXTON
... In Surprise Wedding

Margie Murphy-Clyde Laxton Married in Yuma on July 14

Coming as a surprise to their many friends is the announcement being made today by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Murphy, 1491 W. 227th St., of the marriage of their daughter, Margie, to Clyde E. Laxton, SH3 United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laxton of Piedmont, Mo.

The wedding was solemnized at 6:30 a.m. on July 14 in Yuma, Ariz. at the Four Square Church with the Rev. W. H. Haines officiating.

For her wedding the bride wore a white linen sheath dress with lace trim, a small white hat and a corsage of white orchids.

Her attendant, Miss Evelyn Sullivan, wore a blue summer print with a pink carnation corsage.

Powell-Rische Nuptials Are Solemnized in Arvin June 17

Miss Geraldine Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Powell Sr. of Arvin exchanged her wedding vows with Thomas Rische, former member of the Torrance Herald staff and now editor of the News-Herald at Highland Park, in a ceremony in Arvin June 17. The wedding was solemnized at the Congregational Church with the Rev. Benjamin Schwab officiating.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white cotton lace afternoon gown. Her fingertip veil was held by a semi-crown of crushed tulle and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations and gladioli.

Miss Betty Powell, maid of honor, wore a gown of yellow cotton lace and carried white carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Powell and Mrs. Frances Droogas. They wore pink and blue cotton lace gowns and carried white carnations.

Lighting the candles, which flanked the pink and white gladioli banking the altar, were Mmes. Lucille Pratt and Wanda Downs. Miss Virginia Roderick had charge of the guest book.

Nicolas Droogas of Santa Monica was the best man and ushers were John Anagnostis of Santa Monica, Paul Powell, brother of the bride; and Otto Moreland, long-time friend from Lincoln, Neb., now living in Glendale.

Prior to the entrance of the bride party, Miss Louise Colter of Eagle Rock sang "With This Ring," "The Lord's Prayer" and "You Are Love."

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The couple spent a honeymoon in San Francisco and are now at home in Eagle Rock.

The bride was graduated from Bakersfield High School, Junior College and UCLA. She is now teaching in Burbank. At Bakersfield college, the new Mrs. Rische was a member of Lance and Shield, French club and at UCLA she held membership in the junior class council. She won a scholarship to UCLA sponsored by the Zonta club.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. R. H. Rische of Arvin, Neb., who came to attend her son's wedding, is a graduate of the Nebraska University and UC LA. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Theta, social fraternity, Sigma Delta Chi and Kappa Tau Delta, journalism honoraries.

Wedding guests from out-of-town included: Messrs. and Mmes. James Sinclair and Richard Bull from Highland Park; Fred Thomas, of Douglas Ariz.; Leroy Horn, of Santa Fe, N.M.; John Cook, of Santa Monica; and Miss Mary Farrell of Santa Monica.

League Gives Shower For Pastor's Wife

Little Theresa Mary Warncke, who was born June 22 to Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Warncke, was the incentive for a shower and party given by the Women's League of the Ascension Lutheran Church on Monday evening of last week at the church. Theresa Mary's father is pastor of the church.

Mrs. Warncke was presented with a shower of gifts and several games were played followed by refreshments.

Special guest at the party was the grandmother of the new baby, Mrs. W. Warncke of Portland, Ore., who left Tuesday for her home after a several weeks stay with her son and family.

Guests at the party were Mmes. Anita Stevens, Reatha Neumann, Irma Figueroa, Olive Henaman, Dorothy Becker, Elizabeth Hawes, Emma Amen, Viola Smittle, Vivian Dohlborg, Janie Shockley, Edith Dibble, Bessie Lawhern, H. Rittani, Jeanne Waner and Lucy Johnson.

Others were Mmes. Nora Doeschner, Dorothy Satcher, Emma Prieue, Mildred Lee, Geraldine Ekrom, W. Warncke, Lucille Stebens, Irene Wynken, Shirley Rawlin, Louise Holtorf, Viola Peterson, Elizabeth Roth, Ruby Carrico, Diana Chaffey, Joyce Ranzenberger, Olga Schulke, and Julia Schwartzrock.

AT BIG SUR

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coulston and children, Barbara, Kathleen and DD, 209 Via Pasquel, left Sunday morning for a 10 day camping trip at Big Sur.